

The Organization.

Andrianson Natanael
Situmorang, S.H.
Partner

Andrianson Natanael Situmorang is a Partner at Luna Law known for his commercially driven and pragmatic approach in handling complex disputes, restructuring and insolvency matters, employment law issues, and corporate investigations. He regularly advises and represents domestic and multinational corporations, financial institutions, investors, and business owners in commercially sensitive and business-critical matters.

His practice includes litigation involving debt recovery and enforcement actions, shareholder disputes, employment-related conflicts, restructuring and insolvency proceedings, and internal investigations. He works closely with clients to navigate complex legal challenges while balancing legal risk, commercial objectives, and practical business considerations.

Andrianson has also advised on cross-border matters involving international arbitration, enforcement of foreign arbitral awards, corporate governance issues, and strategic dispute resolution. Andrianson is a licensed advocate and a member of the Indonesian Advocates Association (PERADI) and the Indonesian Association of Receivers and Administrators (AKPI).